with Sally

"Just a Song at Twilight" always makes us dream not of the time when we were young, but of the days when we shall be old.

Those will be the lovely days, with a quiet fireside seat, a lavender shawl and no presses and typewriters clacking in our ear.

And if our lumbago bothers us, we will just rub on some more liniment and murmur brightly, "Bring me a cup of Folger's coffee from Westlake Market. There's still lots to live for."

And when our little granddaughter lovingly hands us a cup of coffee and some cookies from Geneva Bakery, we shall look at her over our spectacles and murmur wickedly, "And now we'll take a thick porterhouse steak from Farmers Meat Company, some fluffy mashed potatoes from the Daly City Cut Rate Market, and a whole can of peaches from Colma Pioneer Market."

Yes, there will be lots to live for.

Then we shall tell her about the days when we were young, the good old days when large eggs sold for 20c a dozen from Robertson's Egg store, when watermelons grew riper and redder and could be bought for a song at Lucca Ravioli Company.

And as we play our streamlined radio from Byrne's Radio Store, we shall musingly recount how popular Byrne's little portables were back in the year 1940; and how that was the same year that everyone was buying new Willys automobiles from Mather Brothers and getting excellent Service at Stan's Standard Station.

While we twist the television dial, we shall grumble that in the good old days you could go to the Daly City theatre and meet all your friends instead of staying home alone with an ultra-modern contraption like this.

And when she tries to soothe us by saying that at least the new synthetic clothes are an improvement, we shall say, well, we doubt it, because Beeson Cleaners could

Civilization Kills

Civilization proved too much for the youth who left the loneliest Isle in the world. After less than a year in London he died. Donald Glass was a direct descendant of the William Glass who founded the settlement at Tristan da Cunha, in the South Atlantic, more than a century ago. Donald left a happy Isle, where disease is practically unknown, determined to succeed in the great world. He was accepted by the Boy Scouts, who tried to make life for him something like that in the home from which he came, but they failed to consider the germs that afflict civilization. He fell ill and gradually declined.

But secretly we shall be glad we are old so we can piece quilts and paint chairs with quick-drying paints from H. H. Smith.

Then we can do all the things for which there was never time when we were young. We're going to learn to blow smoke rings and stand on our head and make shadow pictures on the wall. We'll play a ukelele and go roller-skating and eat all the pie we want from Waxman's Bakery.

In fact we wish we were old right now.

Windsor and 'Wally' Go to New Home

The government house in Nassau, Bahamas Islands where the Duke and Duchess of Windsor will take up residence as England's former king assumes his duties as Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Bahamas Islands. "Wally" and Edward are pictured in insets above. The Windsors are now enroute to the Bahamas.

Birthday of the Week

Concord Grapes

In 1840 some boys of Concord, Mass., gathered wild grapes in the nearby woods. On their way home they threw some of the seeds on the land of Ephraim Bull. Mr. Bull preserved one of the seedlings that sprang up, and when it fruited he planted its seeds. One of the second generation of plants proved superior to the others, so he preserved this, which became the parent of that variety of grapes. Thus the "Concord" grape.

Wanted.

After all, there's nothing like being particular. From a farm in Box-ville, Ky., 24-year-old Joe Ellis Baker went to Evansville, Ind., and asked police there to help him find a wife. Qualifications: She may be either blonde or brunette, but must be a good cook, pretty and under 36. But the foregoing combined advantages are not quite enough for choosy Joe. It is absolutely essential that she also have $20,000 so he can buy a farm.

European Gold

In many European countries gold is so hoarded by the government that its use for dental fillings is prohibited. In Russia cavities are commonly filled by several kinds of metal alloys.

Colorful Duds for Dudley

One of the busiest actresses in radio is fetching Doris Dudley, in-genue of the CBS comedy series "Meet Mr. Meek." Doris can't be bothered with tussy clothes, she says, so for hot summer weather she chooses this comfortable and colorful dirndl, easy skirt and little bolero. The shoes are a blessing for tired tootsies—made of softest knitted fabric.

Fair Napoleon Bathes

For the first time in history Napoleon takes a bath . . . on the American stage. Shown above is Napoleon, played by James Stott, taking his famous bath in "America! Cavalcade of a Nation," theme spectacle of the 1940 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Helen Carroll, one of the Merry Macs in the Al Pearce Show on CBS network, finds that if you have a good figure you may as well wear a bathing suit that is both comfortable and figure-molding. The one-piece standby is good to swim in, sun in, and be looked at in.

Adaptable to all kinds of weather is this classic shirt-maker dress worn by Elizabeth Reller, co-star of the CBS radio serial "Young Dr. Malone." Complementing it is the snappy pigskin belt and purse (Mark Cross, N. Y.) and the simple but smart gold pin at the neck. The sport swag-gar jacket is optional.

OCEAN VIEW SECTIONWhen it's tea for two, try these Open-face Olive BiscuitsSo extra-delicious, so easy to make...
they're grand for a big crowd, too

• For tea, buffet parties or Sunday night suppers, these attractive Open-face Olive Biscuits make a big hit. And they're so easy and inexpensive to make!

Simply halve hot baking powder biscuits, spread them with mayonnaise and top with sliced stuffed olives. Or spread hot buttered biscuits with deviled ham and garnish with slices of sweet pickle.

But the tastiest spread goes unappreciated if the biscuits are not light, flaky, tender and golden brown. They'll be all of that when you mix them with pure, bland Spry. This vegetable shortening cuts into your other ingredients so quickly and easily, it's no bother to mix them up often. So clip the recipe now and treat your friends to these tasty Open-face Olive Biscuits soon.

Open-face Olive Biscuits2 cups sifted flour 1/2 cup milk
2 teaspoons baking powder (about)
1/4 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/4 teaspoon Spry (vegetable shortening) 1/2 cup sliced olives, sliced

Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Cut in Spry until mixture is as fine as meal. Add milk, mixing to a soft dough. Knead lightly about 20 seconds.

Roll dough to 1/4-inch thickness. Cut with biscuit cutter and place on baking sheet. Bake in very hot oven (450° F.) 12 minutes.

Split hot biscuits, spread each half with mayonnaise and cover with sliced olives. Makes 1 dozen biscuits.

(All measurements in this recipe are level)

That's Cricket

Although ordered by his physician not to leave his bed, Gerald Backhouse hopped out, dashed to the Melbourne, Australia, cricket ground and won his heat in the qualifying mile championship event. He returned to bed, stayed there till noon the next day, then started again and won the final.

Large Hull Launched

The first large hull in 60 years was launched at Nova Scotia when a 45-foot dredge slid down the ways of a Pictou marine railway. The hull was built for the department of public works.

Guests Are Welcome

In all Mohammedan countries, hospitality is the strongest instinct, a tenet of religion even, and they have a pretty proverb which, being translated, runs: "A guest is a present from God."

Silk From Corn Meal

Zeln, a protein-like substance from which artificial silk is now being spun, is made from corn meal. Zeln filaments can be twisted into yarns from which many kinds of textile fabrics can be woven. The artificial silk made from corn can be dyed to any color desired.

ON THE TRAIL OF BARGAINS WITH OCEAN VIEW SUE

Dear Friends:

I always wanted to be a big-time explorer and track down the wily rhinoceros or the double-headed fu-fu bird but I really never get farther from home than maybe over to Treasure Island for the day, so I do my exploring right here at home in Ocean View.

Did you know that Paul Pesce is selling a 3-pound can of Spry for only 48¢? (And unless the make-up editor inadvertently swallows the recipe I saw in the back shop this afternoon, there's a swell tip on what to do for a new type of treat, prepared with Spry).

Now I love a bargain, but there's one place I just can't bear to stint myself—and that's on meat.

We love meat—particularly the choicer cuts, and Alemany Meat Market certainly knows how to prepare quality meats at reasonable prices.

By the way, if your youngsters are as back-to-school minded as mine, they're already clamoring for pencils and tablets. Ocean View Toggery has a complete line of school supplies.

You know, I think it's quite amazing the wide variety of services right here at our fingertips in Ocean View—for instance New Home Beauty Shop, Alemany Cleaners, Ocean View Shoe Shop and Ocean View Bakery.

Hmmm—seems to me I hear a first-class riot in the kitchen.

That would be Gerald and Teddy and it's a certainty that they're simply starved—are't youngsters always STARVED? I'd better go fix up a lunch for the two of them.

See you next week,
Ocean View Sue.

Fish Skin Fibers
Textile fibers from fish skin are a new development of Italian research, it is reported to the American Chemical Society. The fibers are said to have a solidity 25 per cent higher than that of natural silk.

Dixie in Donegal
One Man's pass on Slieve League, Donegal, Ireland, is the only place in the world where one can lie on one's face in the grass and look down a drop of 2,000 feet to the sea below.

House Fly Massacre
Pupils of the ninth grade at Tiffin, Ohio, told that every housefly killed now means millions less later in the season, killed 8,226 of the insects in one week. They computed that their victims would have been ancestors of 49,336,000,000,000,000 buzzing, disease-breeding descendants by next fall.

Soap Nut Tree

Soap nut, the fruit of a handsome tree found throughout India, has been used to wash woolen fabrics, silks and jewelry since ancient times, even in preference to soap. Scientists today have learned to extract the essential matter, saponin, from the nut for use in the manufacture of soapless shampoos, as a foam stabilizer, and as an emulsifying agent for vegetable and essential oils.

Poisonous Venom

The quantity of venom injected into a victim when bitten by a poisonous snake depends upon the size of the snake, the length of time the poison has been accumulating, the depth of the fang thrust and the location of the bite.

'IN THE BAG'

Some people collect china, antiques or autographs. But pretty Barbara Daly, CBS radio starlet, concentrates on purses. Her collection includes bags of almost every shape, texture and color. This handsome black one, woven from thin strands of silk cord, goes well with the black sheer dress and silk net gloves.

WINES & LIQUORSSong Bird Club

Lets in the eighties the Portland (Ore.) Song Bird club, a society for the introduction of useful song birds, was founded. This organization raised considerable money and imported many birds between 1888 and 1907. It nearly succeeded in establishing the skylark in the neighborhood of that city between 1889 and 1908. The species certainly bred in the neighborhoods of Portland, Selem and Grasham, and existed for 20 or 30 years. The bureau believes that one of these colonies is thriving at the present time.

Cooking Lesson

Left at home to cook his supper while his wife was at the movies, a 28-year-old husband in Prague, Czechoslovakia, became so alarmed when the porridge boiled over and filled the kitchen with steam that he rushed to the theater, calling loudly for his mate. The attendants objected to this disturbance of the performance, but the frenzied man threatened them with violence if they interfered. Charged at the police court with disorderly conduct, he was bound over for 12 months.

Kansas City Shakedown

The shakedown of the Kansas City police department has really brought results. Cleanups have extended beyond crime and politics. Now Saturday night baths will be given the well-known story from the beginning. A police captain strolling through a park noticed the fish pond was scummy and the gold fish were mighty dingy. He ordered the water changed and each fish washed every Saturday night in a salt solution to brighten it up a bit.

Cermak Memorial

The Cermak Memorial plaque, in Bayfront park at Miami, bears the following inscription: "I'm glad I was me instead of you." Anton J. Cermak, mayor of Chicago—Born May 9, 1873, Kladno, Czechoslovakia—Died March 6, 1933, Miami, Fla. It was here February 15, 1933, that an attempt was made to assassinate Franklin Delano Roosevelt. This shot mortally wounded Anton J. Cermak, who then uttered the immortal words quoted above. Dedicated March 6, 1936.

"Waterloo Bridge" Shows London Blackout Of Today in Unique and Spectacular Scene

Virginia Field, Robert Taylor, Vivien Leigh in "Waterloo Bridge," now playing at the Daly City theatre. Vitality, timeliness and realism characterize this romance.

Impulse Influence Life

It is much easier to act firmly and bravely under a strong impulse than it is to restrain an impulse when called upon to do so. Of all the battles of life there is not one that requires so much real courage as that silent battle with self, which every dutiful person finds it frequently necessary to wage.

Churches of a Sinner

A tourist recently returned from Wilno in Poland reports 13 churches there all built by one man known as Pac. On his tomb is the simple inscription, "Here lies a sinner, Pac."

Statue to Anonymous

At Budapest in Hungary is a statue to Anonymous, a notary who wrote a chronicle of Hungarian history, the first page of which having his name was lost; hence the commemoration of an unknown historian.

Interesting Manuscript

What is called "the most interesting MS. in England" can be seen by visitors in the Library of Corpus Christi college at Cambridge. It is the copy of the Gospels which Pope Gregory sent with Augustin when he made his first missionary journey to convert the English to Christianity in the year 597.

Jack of All Trades

Darius L. Martin, who died at Deer Island, N. B., at the age of 91, was a jack of all trades and master of each. His diversified work included undertaking, casket-making, carpentry, cabinet-making, painting, veterinary surgery and farming. He was also a justice of the peace.

Oldest History Book

The world's oldest history "book" is an ancient stone tablet in the National Museum of Palermo, Sicily, which records the years from 3600 to 2700 B. C. not by dates but by mention of important events and personalities.
